

UK December Get Away

9th – 16th December 2020

Cotswolds & Somerset

Enjoy a break and get away on this seven day UK tour where everything is arranged for you and all socially distanced. You have an opportunity to relax, see some of the Christmas Illuminations and do Christmas shopping.

All campsites are with hard standing pitches & electric hook ups. They are located within walking distance of the local town/village or close to a bus stop, making getting out & about easy.

We start near to Stratford upon Avon, then travel a little further into the Cotswold's for a stay at 'Adams Farm' before finishing at Wells with its wonderful Cathedral and Bishops Palace.

*Included in the tour are two group dinners and a group lunch. **

7 Nights

Day One – Wednesday 9th December

We meet at a campsite in the heart of the Cotswolds for a two-night stay at Adam's Cotswold Farm. Adam can be seen on the BBC Countyfile programme and the farm has many rare breeds of farm animals

Day Two – Thursday 10th December

Entry to Adams Farm is included for you today so you can explore and get up close to some of the animals in your own time. This evening we will visit the Enchanted Illuminated Walk within the park.

Day Three – Friday 11th December

We move next to a campsite on the outskirts of Stratford upon Avon for a two-night stay. 25 miles

Day Four - Saturday 12th December

An opportunity to take the bus from outside the campsite into Stratford upon Avon, the 16th-century birthplace of William Shakespeare and has many other architecturally interesting buildings.

Day Five – Sunday 13th December

Travel today to our last campsite which is within walking distance of Wells. 85 miles

Days Six & Seven - Monday 14th & Tuesday 15th December

You can wander into Wells for some Christmas shopping. Also Wells Cathedral and The Bishop's Palace are well worth a visit. Enjoy a 'Farewell Dinner' on the evening of Tuesday 15th December in a local restaurant.

Days Eight – Wednesday 16th December

Our tour comes to an end this morning.
