

Sardinia

22nd May – 14th June 2025

Be captivated by Sardinia

Located halfway between Africa and Europe, Sardinia is the second largest island in the Mediterranean Sea and fiercely proud of its unique identity, although Italian the island is very different to the rest of Italy.

The island was once a natural pit stop for Empires on their journey through the Mediterranean Sea. The Phoenicians, Vandals and Byzantines have all left their mark, with the town of Alghero being colonised by the Spanish Catalans for hundreds of years.

Another thing that really sets Sardinia apart is it has nearly 2000Km of coastline, white sands and turquoise waters, the Caribbean-like beaches are some of the best-looking in Europe. Its rugged landscape is dotted with thousands of nuraghi – mysterious Bronze Age stone ruins shaped like beehives. One of the largest and oldest nuraghi is Su Nuraxi in Barumini, dating to 1500 B.C.

We travel around the whole island at a leisurely pace so that you have time to visit the historic landmarks that abound the island, included is a well-planned excursion programme which along with an above average number of group meals ensures your tour is relaxed, well informed and you eat well throughout.

Campsites in Sardinia tend to be rustic, matching the local feel, with basic clean amenities. Pitches are generally not defined and at times, whilst hook-ups are available amperage can be limited.

'This was our first tour travelling with GBMT. We had a wonderful time exploring Sardinia with a great group of people. Ron & Sue were excellent group leaders and worked tirelessly to ensure a great time was had by all. We would highly recommend, and we look forward to booking on another tour in the future.'

'We fell in love with Sardinia and the local people on Sue & Ron's excellent tour. Sardinia is rich with history, has a beautiful coastline with white sands and turquoise waters. We liked the contrast with the wild interior. Oleanders in pink and white lined so many roads and graceful flamingos were to be found in several lagoon.' Anna & Steve Hardy – Sardinia 2023 tour

'An excellent, well-balanced tour allowing us to experience the many aspects of this beautiful island. The tireless efforts of our tour leaders, Ron & Sue to make everything run smoothly is much appreciated.'

23 Nights

Day One – Thursday 22nd May

We meet at a campsite not far from Livorno. This evening, we will have an informal Drinks Reception, an opportunity for everyone to get together for the first time.

Day Two – Friday 23rd May

After our early morning drive to the ferry port 5 miles, we board to cross to the island of Sardinia. Following a short drive, we arrive at our first campsite on the island, where we will stay for four nights. 20 miles

Day Three – Saturday 24th May

A relaxing morning and then our first Sardinian meal together as we enjoy lunch in the campsite restaurant.

Day Four – Sunday 25th May

Our excursion today takes us to Costa Smeralda, a stretch of 10km situated between the bay of Arzachena and the Gulf of Cugnana and is perhaps the best-known corner of Sardinia, famous for its beaches and glitzy resorts. Spectacular scenery, pure white sand, and VIPs luxury yachts. Lunch is included in a local restaurant.

Day Five – Monday 26th May

Relaxing day or take a walk down to the local beach.

Day Six – Tuesday 27th May

Onward travel to our next campsite in the area of Arbatax, where we stay for four nights. It is worth stopping to visit the “Red Rock” rocky outcrops of reddish granite on the way to the campsite. 125 miles

Day Seven – Wednesday 28th May

A day to enjoy the campsite facilities, swimming pool and local beach. This evening there is a group dinner in the campsite restaurant.

Day Eight – Thursday 29th May

Today we visit the village of Orgòsolo. Walking through the town you will see many of the famous murals – huge, colourful, funny and sometimes political. Lunch is rustic, in the woods with the Bandits (Shepherds).

Day Nine – Friday 30th May

Free day, a chance to relax by the campsite's excellent pool facilities.

Day Ten – Saturday 31st May

We travel today to the south of the island, to our campsite on the Golfo di Cagliari. Here we stay for four nights. 125 miles

Day Eleven – Sunday 1st June

Excursion along the Southern Coast offering spectacular views of bays, dunes and pine forests. Following a visit to the "Grotte di Zuddas" we enjoy a traditional lunch before making our way back to the campsite.

Day Twelve – Monday 2nd June

Free day to relax, there is a beach near the campsite

Day Thirteen – Tuesday 3rd June

Cagliari is our destination today, there will be a guided visit followed by free time to explore. In the afternoon we visit the archaeological site of Nora, founded under Phoenician rule in the 9th-8th centuries BC and built on a spit of land jutting out to sea.

Day Fourteen – Wednesday 4th June

Start to travel north today to our next campsite, situated in a pine forest at Narbolia. En-route take a detour to Barumini 65 miles to visit "Su Nuraxi" the largest nuraghic fortress in Sardinia. The original settlement dates back from 1500 BC during the Middle Bronze Age. We will be staying at the campsite for five nights. 65 miles

Day Fifteen – Thursday 5th June

Our excursion today takes us to the Sinis Peninsula, visiting San Salvatore where their white houses are only occupied for nine days each year. Then on to the city of Tharros, founded by the Phoenicians around the end of the 8th century BC. Lunch is included at a beach restaurant
