

Scottish Hogmanay

31st December 2025 – 10th January 2026

New Year Celebrations, great Scottish food and impressive scenery

Bring in the New Year with a traditional Scottish Hogmanay celebration and follow this with time touring in Scotland. We start in style, with a Gala Hogmanay Dinner at a traditional Coaching Inn on the banks of the Union Canal near Edinburgh.

We then move to Scotland's capital city of Edinburgh, where we get to see many aspects of the city including a visit to Royal Yacht Britannia. It's then off to the Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond with a visit to Glasgow before we end in the very "Heart of Scotland", in Stirlingshire. Here we will see many familiar locations from Film and TV.

It will be Scotland in January, the driving distances have been kept short and our excursions include many indoor elements as well as some impressive Scottish scenery.

Visiting Scotland would not be complete without experiencing Scotch whisky. We finish our tour at a distillery for tastings and an indulgent 'farewell dinner' prepared for us within the distillery.

Welcome in 2026 Scottish style and

Scottish Hogmanay – Dec 2023/Jan 2024

'Our first trip with GB Motorhome Tours and it didn't disappoint, thoroughly enjoyed it. Tour Directors Jane and Douglas have done an excellent job, very accommodating and kept us well informed throughout the tour. We would also like to thank everyone at GB Motorhome Tours.' Yvonne and Gary Green

'Thoroughly enjoyed our Hogmanay trip to Scotland. Thank you to our tour leaders Jane and Douglas for making it such a wonderful tour.' Cath and Paul Bendall

10 Nights

Day 1 - Wednesday 31st December

We arrive mid-afternoon at a traditional Coaching Inn near Edinburgh and park/stay in their large car park on the banks of the Union Canal. This evening we bring in the New Year in style at a Scottish Hogmanay Gala Dinner with entertainment. Expect a late night, at the end of which it is no more than a few steps back to our motorhomes.

Day 2 - Thursday 1st January

Happy New Year! After last night's celebrations we enjoy a late morning Scottish Breakfast in the Coaching Inn. The rest of the day is free to explore the canal-side or maybe have a New Years Day drink in the bar.

Day 3 - Friday 2nd January

We move to a well-appointed campsite in Edinburgh, nestled in the foothills of the Pentlands. 10 miles

Day 4 - Saturday 3rd January

Today we have a full day guided tour of Edinburgh including a visit on the Royal Yacht Britannia. Lunch is included in a city restaurant.

Day 5 - Sunday 4th January

A free day. You may wish to see more of Edinburgh taking the bus from just outside our campsite. Maybe Edinburgh Castle will be on your list for today. Alternatively, there is good walking in the Pentland Hills or Rosslyn Chapel (Da Vinci Code) is just a short taxi ride away.

Day 6 - Monday 5th January

Drive today to our next campsite at Loch Lomond. This evening we get together for a group dinner with drinks. 72 miles

Day 7 - Tuesday 6th January

A day of culture today. We travel by coach to Helensburgh to see the unique Hillhouse building, interiors and collections designed by Charles Rennie MacKintosh and Margaret MacDonald MacKintosh in the 'Glasgow Style'. We will also see the amazing Hillhouse Box, a pioneering conservation programme to protect the house from "dissolving like an aspirin". In the afternoon we have a tour of the Burrell Collection in Glasgow where we will see a few of the 9000 works of art and antiques collected by Sir William Burrell and bequeathed to the people of Glasgow. Light lunch at Hillhouse included.

Day 8 - Wednesday 7th January

Spend time this morning exploring the local area along the shore of Loch Lomond before making the short scenic drive to arrive at our final campsite in Stirlingshire. We are now in the region of 'Game of Thrones, Outlander, Monty Python and the Holy Grail'. 30 miles

Day 9 - Thursday 8th January

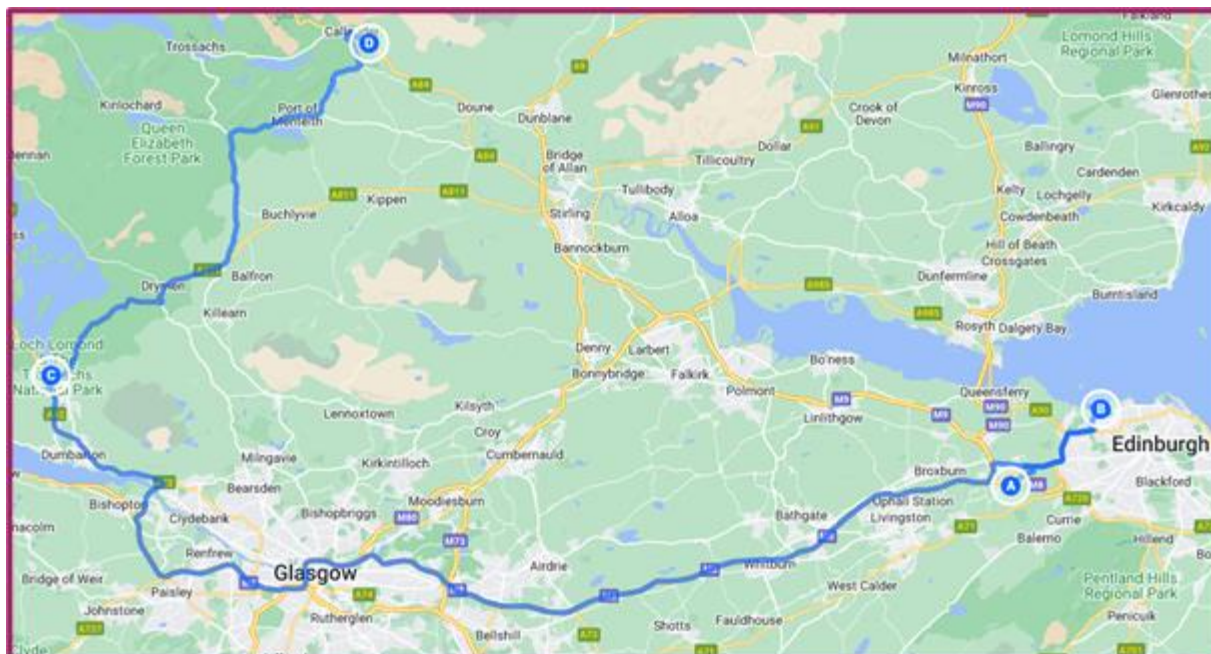

A full day Coach Tour in the "Heart of Scotland" with lunch in Stirling.

Day 10 - Friday 9th January

A free day. Late afternoon we take a tour of the local whisky distillery, followed by an indulgent 'Farewell Dinner' prepared for us at the distillery.

Day 11 - Saturday 10th January

Our tour ends.
